Gaithersburg Chorus presents Spring Concert featuring works by Copland & Sondheim

Gaithersburg, MD – (May 1, 2019) The Gaithersburg Chorus presents “No One is Alone,” a spring concert featuring music that inspires hope and joy. Featured selections include Aaron Copland’s “The Promise of Living” and Stephen Sondheim’s “No One is Alone” from Into the Woods. Two performances will be held at 7:30 p.m., one on Friday, May 17 at Gaithersburg Presbyterian Church, 610 South Frederick Avenue, and the other on Tuesday, May 21 at the Rosborough Theatre at Asbury Methodist Village, 301 Odendhal Avenue.

The Gaithersburg Chorus is directed by Daniel Hopkins. Accompaniment for these concerts is provided by Ruth Bright. The May 21 performance features guest soprano Analeigh Flieger, first-place vocal winner in the 2019 Young Artist Award competition. Admission is free, and donations are gratefully accepted. All ages are welcome.

The Gaithersburg Chorus requires no audition to join and is open to anyone high school aged or older. Rehearsals are held on Tuesday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Activity Center at Bohrer Park September through May. Formal weekly rehearsals for the fall session begin Tuesday, September 3, 2019. There is a registration fee to join; financial aid is available. For more information, please call 301-258-6394 or visit www.gaithersburgmd.gov.

This program is funded in part by a grant from the Maryland State Arts Council (MSAC). To discover more about MSAC grants and how they impact Maryland's arts sector, visit www.msac.org.
